Hello Mr Foster,

Thank you for contacting Fleshlight Customer Service.

I am sorry that the email did not make it to you previously.

We always pay close attention to all concerns on publicly used products. When we hear new research concerns, we act quickly to adjust products to always stay current with providing the best products available. Tricosan has been removed from the Fleshwash products.

If you have any other questions, please let me know.

Sincerely,

Leonard Parker ILF Customer Service Manager
